

Sandy Springs Lodge #124

100 Johnson Ferry Road, NE

Atlanta, Georgia 30028

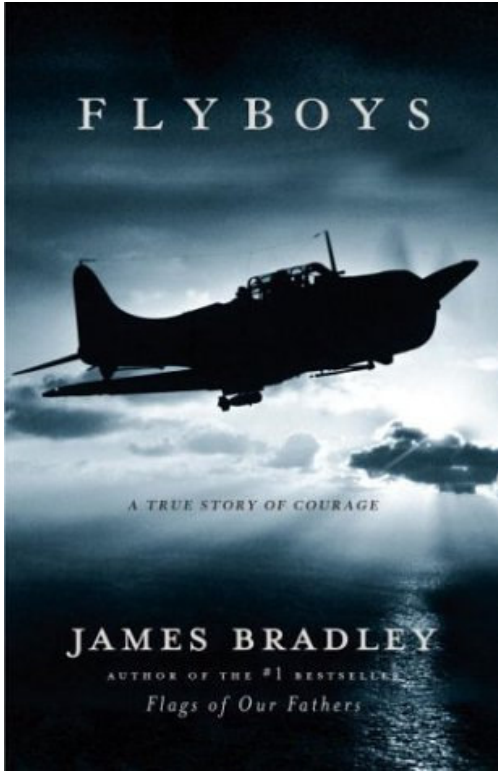

Volume 1, No. 7

Your Masonic Newsletter

April 11, 2004

They were “The Greatest Generation”

Tom Brokaw made popular the expression The Greatest Generation with his book about the men and women who grew up during the Great Depression and who answered their country’s call to duty in World War II. Now James Bradley has written a powerful book about the third dimension, which came into prominence during WWII—the dimension of the air.

At our next communication on April 13 we will hear a reading from this book. The reading will be from chapter four, which is entitled The Third Dimension. It is the story of Billy Mitchell, based on the book Pioneer of Air Power and other sources of information.

“Billy Mitchell was a handsome and articulate man, the son of a wealthy United States senator from Milwaukee. When World War I arrived he was an army colonel in charge of America’s air support and saw first hand the hellish stalemate of trench warfare—enormous armies dug in, unable to advance, murdering one another in the mud.” Come Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. to learn more.

Report on Warren Danner

On a recent visit to WB Warren Danner, he seemed to be in good spirits and quite a bit stronger than a week ago. WB Tommy Meeks and Mary Shockley had just been by to check on him and as they were leaving Julian Hinson dropped in.

Warren was ready and willing to explain to Julian how the universe was created and also discuss everything from electrons to quarks. He mentioned a must-read book, The God Particle, and Julian and I said that we would order it right away, so that we could more intelligently discuss it with him.

York Rite Festival

A York Rite Festival was held on March 27, 2004 at the Chamblee/Sardis Lodge, under the direction of Mark Luttrell, Fifth District Past High Priest. There were eight candidates for the Chapter and Council degrees. They were Mark Faubion, Jerold Peacock, Wayne Glass, Bryan Glass, Sean Rogers, James Clifton, Edwin Scott, and William David. As we all know, James and Edwin “Duke” are members of SS Lodge #124 and are now members of Mt. Horeb Chapter #155 and Euclid Council #33. In the background James Clifton is on the left and Edwin Scott is third from the left. Welcome Companions. We meet on the third Thursday of each month. Incidentally, Companion Joe Suttles is at the Holy Altar and Companion Randy Blasch is at the far right in the photo.

