Calvary Children Visit Lodge

The children from Calvary Children's Home along with their adult houseparents were on hand for the annual Christmas party on Tuesday, November 23, at which time they received gift certificates from the Lodge, together with other "goodies" which were presented by Beverly McIntosh and Laura Block, who knitted snow men. The gift certificates were in the amount of $50 for each of the 28 children and along with these were gift cards for an extra $10 in merchandise, all from the Old Navy Store, a popular place for young people to shop. The picture on the left shows some of the children along with Chuck Sprayberry, one of the houseparents. In addition to Chuck and his wife, other houseparents include Brian Busby and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harper.

On the same evening, Doyle Davis was presented his 50-year apron and his 50-year pin was placed on his lapel by his wife Louise. A most unusual award was given to James Bruce in the form of a 70-year pin. This was from the Grand Lodge of South Carolina. The presentations were made by Past Grand Master Joe Suttles.
